

would be the candidate for Governor

THE EAGLE'S SCREAM.

Brooklyn's Jeffersonian Journal Advises the Democratic Donkey to Keep Its Heels Off the Filipinos. Republican Policy Indorsed.

In the unusual contest that the party expects to make this year to carry West Virginia, Davis is giving personal attention to the convention.

C. W. Wood Daily, the attorney of the Davis interests at Elkins, W. Va., and William H. Thompson of Huntington are both mentioned as Davis men for Governor. There is also agitation for Judge John H. Holt of Huntington for Governor.

Davis declares emphatically that he has no state for the State ticket, but wants such a ticket and platform of support to assist in securing the election of the seven Presidential electors in West Virginia.

National Committeeman John McGraw and members of the State Committee and others have been in conference with Davis all day, not only considering the ability of candidates, but also the platform which will be in accord with the St. Louis platform and also express the well-known views of Senator Davis on his new scheme of State taxation, which relieves real estate and taxes the output of oil, coal and other industries, and also taxes the corporations. This issue is attracting more attention in the State than all national issues.

THE RACE ISSUE.

PARKERSBURG, Aug. 2.—After a conference of the leaders tonight, the indications are that W. R. Thompson of Huntington will be nominated for Governor. Very many delegates to tonight are wearing white badges, with the words "White Man's Party," and the radicals seem to outnumber the conservatives on the white supremacy plank, which Senator Davis is said to favor.

Unless Mr. Davis exercises his influence, there will be a fight on the race question in the Committee on Resolutions, and possibly in the convention. It was thought that the address of Senator Davis would be the feature of the convention, but he tonight said that he would speak only on personal and State matters, and not discuss any national questions. He may not go into the convention at all.

He says he has not been formally notified of his nomination, and until he is notified at White Sulphur Springs, August 17, he feels that it would not be appropriate for him to speak at a candidate.

IN WASHINGTON STATE.

GEORGE TURNER FOR GOVERNOR.

BELLINGHAM (Wash.) Aug. 2.—The Democratic State convention, called to name a complete State ticket, met in Bellingham at 2 p. m. today. The principal contest is over the Lieutenant-Governorship, with Steven Judson of Pierce county, Henry Drum of Olympia, William Blackman, present State Labor Commissioner, and J. M. Pearson of Seattle as leading candidates.

By noon the delegates had formed a combination which insures the naming of the following candidates: Governor—George Turner, Spokane; Lieutenant-Governor—Stephen Judson, Tacoma.

Justice Supreme Court—Judge C. H. Neal, Lincoln county.

Attorney-General—Fred Battle, Seattle.

Lieutenant Governor—M. M. Johnson, King county.

Secretary of State—Henry Drum, Olympia.

Treasurer—George Medgett, Spokane.

Auditor—Lee Purdin, Elensburg.

TEXANS AND PROHIBITION.

WATER ISSUE AT HOUSTON.

HOUSTON (Tex.) Aug. 2.—The Democratic State convention assembled here today. Carlos Best of San Antonio was elected temporary chairman. Committees were appointed, and a new executive committee of 51 members was named.

A contest is furnished for two places on the ticket—Attorney and Superintendent of Education. R. V. Davidson of Galveston will probably be named for the former office.

The prohibition issue is the dominant question before the Committee on Resolutions.

HOGG CRITICIZES PARKER.

HOUSTON, Tex., Aug. 2.—Little was accomplished by the convention aside from perfecting temporary organization and the consideration of credentials by the committee.

Ex-Gov. Hogg created a sensation when he made a speech referring meekly to "harmony," criticizing Judge Parker, and paying a tribute to the President. He said that Parker would be elected, and that it could not be told that there had been any change of party in the administration.

Ex-Congressman T. H. Bell resigned ex-Gov. Hogg and was given loud applause, holding a sort of reception as the convention adjourned.

T. TAGGART'S TRAVELS.

LAND HIM AT HOME.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 2.—Thomas Taggart, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, arrived home this evening, and was given a public reception in Tomlinson Hall by the Democrats of the city and county.

The speakers were John Holtzman, Taggart and ex-Senator Charles A. Towne, formerly of Minnesota, now of New York. The reception was preceded by a parade from the station to the hall, with 2000 men in line.

Mayor Holtzman formally welcomed Taggart home, and congratulated the party upon his selection to conduct the national campaign. In responding, Taggart asked for the support of Democrats and independent voters who favor "an honest government and an economical administration of public affairs."

Ex-Senator Towne in his address congratulated the party upon having Thomas Taggart for national chairman. He criticized the Republican party for what he charged was a departure from the fundamental principles of American government, and that the party had "sold the world." He said he "to exemplify liberty and justice, and when we cease doing that we had better out of it."

The President was condemned by the speaker for what he styled his "unconstitutional methods." The name of Parker was loudly cheered.

At the close of the meeting Taggart said he would probably announce to members of the National Executive Committee tomorrow. He declined to discuss the location of the western headquarters.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Eagle, (Democratic) says:

"Presumably, Parker's speech of acceptance is almost ready for delivery. Without doubt it will be unequivocal and emphatic in its allusions to the Philippines. Parker is understood to be convinced that we should have no colonies, and the St. Louis platform declares it to be our duty to 'set the Philippines upon their feet, free and independent, to work out their own destiny.'"

"This has given renewed activity to anti-imperialists, who broke out in Boston last night with enthusiasm. Debate as to what shall be done with the archipelago hereafter is, of course, more than permissible, but no greater barbarity could be committed than would be involved in the abandonment of the Philippines out of hand."

"For the first time in their history the islanders are beginning to realize the significance of the word 'freedom.' They have been furnished with a substitute for tyranny. The only government about which they knew anything until the pretensions of Aguinaldo were dispelled was conducted on the theory that there was no distinction between 'mine and thine' and that 'might made right.' It was a government not of liberty, but of license."

"By processes necessarily laborious, new conditions are being created. Moreover, wherever and whenever these conditions warrant such a course, the Filipinos themselves are becoming part and parcel of the governing power. The truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth is stated when it is said that, under American auspices, civilization is spreading its beneficence over the archipelago."

"These who would call this sort of thing to halt would exchange benediction for malediction."

PARKER NEEDS VOTES.

He's Not Too Proud to Invite "Big Bill" Devery of Redlight Infamy to (Fre)Eso(u)p(ho)us(e) Though Tammany Fired Him Out.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] "Big Bill" Devery, whose foul administration of the police department caused Tammany's overthrow in 1903, has been invited by Parker to visit Esopus. Devery is no vice politically that even Tammany fired him out, previous to the city campaign of 1902. Devery stood for "redlights," "graft" and "wide-open" vice, but Parker invites him to his home for the sake of gaining votes in Devery's "Ninth."

Following his visit to Parker, Devery will journey to Graceland and pay his respects to Henry Gassaway Davis. This announcement was made last night at a meeting of the William S. Devery Association, and to back it up, Devery showed two letters, one from Parker and the other from the venerable Democratic candidate for the Esopus seat.

Eddie Schneider, secretary of the club, read two very important communications bearing on the Presidential campaign. A letter from Parker thanked the members of the Devery Association for having indorsed him, and said that Parker would be pleased to receive William S. Devery and his friends to Esopus tomorrow afternoon at the notification ceremony.

The second letter was signed by Henry Gassaway Davis, but the Vice-Presidential candidate evidently was better posted about Devery than Parker, for he there was no invitation in Davis's letter for "Big Bill" to go down to West Virginia.

After the meeting, "Big Bill" invited the crowd downstairs and treated them to drinks on the strength of Parker's and Davis's letters, which Devery had tucked away in his inside pocket.

"PITCH INTO 'TEDDY'."

PARKER'S CAMPAIGN SLOGAN.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Tribune's Washington special says:

"Word has gone out from Democratic headquarters, inspired, it is understood, by instructions from Esopus, that Theodore Roosevelt is to be regarded as the great issue of this campaign."

of the National Executive Committee, are looked for today or tomorrow from Indianapolis, where Chairman Taggart remains to attend the Indiana Democratic convention. It is said here that he is in almost constant communication with Judge Parker.

It is still believed here that William F. Sheehan will be chairman of the Executive Committee, and that the Finance Committee will be amalgamated therewith. Sheehan remains in New York City, where, it is understood, he is combining attention to his legal business with a close cooperation with many financial and other enterprises in all parts of the United States and Mexico for many years.

Peabody is a personal friend of Edward Sheehan, who recently has been named as the Democratic nominee for Mayor by the Esopus City Council. Peabody supported Sheehan in his first campaign.

Peabody was a member of the Palmer and Buckner Executive and Finance Committees, and was in charge of the Palmer and Buckner headquarters in the East in 1904. He is a member of the banking firm of Spencer, Track, Day and his home is in Brooklyn.

Rainy Day at Esopus.

ESOPUS (N. Y.) Aug. 2.—A rainy day and practically complete cessation in the procession of visitors gave Judge Parker an unbroken morning in which to work on his speech of acceptance to be delivered upon the occasion of his formal notification, Wednesday, at Esopus.

George Foster Peabody of Brooklyn would be treasurer of the National Committee was the only important political topic attracting much attention here today. Judge Parker

PLAYING BOTH ENDS.

"While Parker's telegram is to be used as an argument against the fears of business men that Democracy is still unbound on the money question, it is being pointed out to the 'workers' on the table the sound-money resolution, its committee favoring such action by thirty-five to fifteen, makes the best disposed of by silence. Attention is also called to the fact that there remain in the party so many Bryanites whose votes will be counted just the same as those of gold Democrats, that it would be most unwise to say too much in favor of gold, with the attendant risk of alienating the numerous adherents of 16 to 1."

"In absolute free silver communities, however, the vote of the Committee on Resolutions is likely to demonstrate that, irrespective of the Parker message, the Democratic party has 'kept the faith.' It will be further emphasized to such audiences that Judge Parker himself 'kept the faith' and refused to say more than 'I would be most unwise to say too much in favor of gold, with the attendant risk of alienating the numerous adherents of 16 to 1.'"

SUPPRESSING TARIFF ISSUE.

"Democratic workers are also being cautioned against talking much about the tariff. Representative Bourke Cockran's speeches will not be extensively circulated, except in radical free-trade communities, and Representative Champ Clark's frank declaration that he is for 'absolute free trade' and would, were the opportunity afforded, 'destroy the protection system from turret to foundation,' will be generally kept in the background and used almost exclusively in Missouri and in non-manufacturing States."

refused to comment in any way upon the report, but it is believed to be well founded.

Kansas Democracy's Meet.

TOPEKA (Kan.) Aug. 2.—What will probably be the largest Democratic State convention ever held in Kansas will convene tomorrow morning. Over 700 delegates are here, and more will come tonight. The Populist State Convention will meet tomorrow, and an effort will be made to nominate a fusion ticket. In case fusion can be effected, Judge Parker, Dale of Wichita, and Theodore Roosevelt will be the fusion ticket. Other State officers will be given to the Populists.

MAY DIVIDE MONARCHY.

Fight of Steamship Lines is Said to Have Led to Conflict Between Austria and Hungary.

VIENNA, Aug. 2.—The fight between the Cunard and German lines is said to have led to a conflict between the Hungarian and Austrian governments, which, it is feared, may seriously affect the commercial relations of the two halves of the monarchy.

The Austro-American line recently has taken from Fiume large shipments of corn and sugar, thereby greatly damaging the business of the Adriatic line, which is a part of the Austro-Hungarian line. The Hungarian Minister pointing out that the Austro-American line competition was contrary to the understanding between the two countries.

The Austrian government replied that the Cunard line used competition and the existing arrangement and that therefore the Hungarian government was solely responsible for the change.

SEATTLE, Aug. 2.—In view of the action of the San Francisco and Portland Steamship companies in deciding not to carry cargoes destined for ports in the war zone of the Orient, the Boston Steamship Company and the Nippon Yusen Kaisha of Seattle are preparing to increase their fleets in order to handle the increased exports and import trade which they believe will be deflected to this port. The Boston Steamship Company has made offers for two extra boats, and states that in case the trade demands it, they will secure others.

MURAVIEFF TO SUCCEED.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 2.—It is reported in well-informed circles that Muraviev, the Minister of Justice, will succeed M. Von Plehve, late Minister of the Interior.

N. V. Muraviev, the Minister of Justice, is a brother of the late Count Muraviev, who, when Minister for Foreign Affairs, died suddenly, June 21, 1900. He was born in 1850, and with his brother, the late Minister of Foreign Affairs, was greatly instrumental in the transformation of the Russian penal system and in utilizing the resources of Siberia. WASHINGTON.

TAKE THAT, VARDAMAN.

Mississippi's Governor Given a Wholesome Lesson.

New Postoffice Will Not be Named for Him.

Report of the Ohio's Trial. New Counterfeit.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M.) WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) A peculiar phenomenon is discernible among Democrats with respect to one of the election claims they put forward, even before the nomination of Parker. It will be recalled that the Democratic leaders put the State of New York in the Democratic column. So positive were the assertions that they would carry that State that even some of the Republican election calculators, like Grosvenor of Ohio, went to work to figure out how the Republicans could carry the election without its aid. Grosvenor made no good a job of it that he published his figures, and they have been quoted widely since.

The Republicans have not the least doubt that the can win without the electoral vote of New York, but the spectacle is now being witnessed of the Democrats giving New York back to the Republicans before the campaign has fairly opened.

In Washington there is not to be found one-half of the Democratic positiveness about New York that existed a month ago. Suddenly the Democrats have shifted around and are trying to explain how they can win without New York, and they are not making one-half so successful a job of it as the Republicans did.

"A BAD PROPOSITION."

It appears to be a fact that the inherent weakness of the Democratic party is at last making itself felt.

The postoffice in question has been ordered established, and given the name of "Timberly."

In exercising the discretion given him, the Postmaster-General frequently rejects names suggested for proposed postoffices. He has never been clearer as to his duty than in this case.

"It is proper to say that President Roosevelt had no knowledge of the incident referred to."

THE OHIO'S TRIAL.

REPORT OF ADMIRAL WHITING.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M.) WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—Rear Admiral Whiting, who represented the government aboard the battleship "Ohio," which was given her preliminary report in Santa Barbara channel yesterday, reported to the Navy Department by telegraph today that the uncorrected figures for the Ohio's trip showed an average speed of 17.5 knots per hour. These figures are subject to change, on account of the tidal allowance.

Under the terms of the contract, the Ohio is to make 18 knots an hour. The penalty for failing below this speed is a rebate of $25,000 per quarter knot for the first knot under 18.

HANDING IT BACK.

The Democrats Find "Immaculate" Parker is "A Bad Proposition" as Far as New York is Concerned and are Conceding the State.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) A peculiar phenomenon is discernible among Democrats with respect to one of the election claims they put forward, even before the nomination of Parker. It will be recalled that the Democratic leaders put the State of New York in the Democratic column. So positive were the assertions that they would carry that State that even some of the Republican election calculators, like Grosvenor of Ohio, went to work to figure out how the Republicans could carry the election without its aid. Grosvenor made no good a job of it that he published his figures, and they have been quoted widely since.

The Republicans have not the least doubt that the can win without the electoral vote of New York, but the spectacle is now being witnessed of the Democrats giving New York back to the Republicans before the campaign has fairly opened.

In Washington there is not to be found one-half of the Democratic positiveness about New York that existed a month ago. Suddenly the Democrats have shifted around and are trying to explain how they can win without New York, and they are not making one-half so successful a job of it as the Republicans did.

"A BAD PROPOSITION."

It appears to be a fact that the inherent weakness of the Democratic party is at last making itself felt.

DAVID SEEKING "ANGELS."

HILL'S PHEIL MONEY QUEST.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) David B. Hill made his first incursion into Wall street today in search of "angels" willing to contribute generously to defeat the President who has dared to enforce the laws against the rich as well as the poor. Hill was accompanied by "Bicycle Billy" Sheehan, the "gunshot politician," a neighbor and intimate of Parker.

The two men went direct to the banking house of J. P. Morgan, where they were closeted for some time. From Morgan's office, they visited various houses controlled by big financial interests. Later, Hill and Sheehan refused to say a word about the outcome of their mission.

which supplied the name of the German steamer, the sinking of which was first announced in a telegram to the Associated Press. It is presumed that the ship, although flying the German flag, was chartered by an American firm. In view of the fact that she sailed with a full cargo of munitions, it is likely that, like the Arabia, she sailed from Portland, Ore. The cannon ship, it is believed, has been intended as a gift to the Japanese.

The fact that Rear-Admiral Jensen replaced Vice-Admiral Besnoroff in command of the Vladivostok squadron is now attributed to the departure of Besnoroff. It is said, for Port Arthur, Burukoff, and has taken over the command of the naval forces there from Rear-Admiral Witthoft.

The sailing of the Baltic squadron is probable within a fortnight.

The Japanese government's statement regarding the release of the British steamer Malacca, seized in the Red Sea by the Russian volunteer fleet, is as follows:

From the beginning of the Russo-Japanese War the Japanese government took measures to prevent the transport of contraband of war to Japan by vessels of neutral countries. In the regulations sanctioned by the Emperor February 14, 1904, which Russia proposed to follow during the war, it was declared that the military and maritime necessities of the Japanese empire were the right of rigidly executing the decisions contained in the regulations for naval prizes, sanctioned by the Emperor March 27, 1895, and in the instructions confirmed by the Council of the Admiralty September 29, 1906, regarding the procedure for stopping, visiting and seizing, as well as for carrying off and delivering over to the Japanese authorities.

The volunteer fleet vessels St. Petersburg and Smolensk, having received a special commission, the term of which has now expired, in proceeding to their destinations acted in accordance with the above decisions, and while passing through the Red Sea stopped and visited all suspected vessels encountered in those waters. It was under these conditions that the commander of the St. Petersburg stopped, among others, the British steamer Malacca, the captain of which refused to show his ship's papers relating to the cargo, a refusal which was the reason for the seizure of the vessel, and the decision to send it to Japan with the view to throwing light on the matter. Nevertheless, in view of the official statement of the Japanese government that the Malacca was carrying British state cargo, the imperial government, acting in agreement with the British government, decided that a fresh visit should be paid to the seized vessel at the nearest port on its route in the presence of the British Consul.

This visit occurred at Algiers. The British Consul-General officially certified that the military stores on board continued to be the property of the British government, and that the rest of the cargo was not contraband of war. Taking this attestation into consideration, the imperial government decided to liberate the cargo and vessel. This decision was communicated to the Japanese government by the imperial government of its intention to do so, and the Japanese government, in order to prevent the carrying of contraband for our enemy.

MUSCOVITES FLED WITH BROKEN WINGS.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M.)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—The Japanese legation has received the following cablegram from the Foreign Office at Tokio, dated today:

Gen. Kuraki reports that at daybreak of July 31 our army commenced operations for attacking the enemy occupying Yushulitun (four miles west of Hsi Huyen) and Yang Tsu Ling (six miles west of Motien Ling). Both places situated about twenty-five miles from Liao Yang. The enemy at Yushulitun consisted of two divisions, with corresponding artillery. The attacking operations were carried out as prearranged, and by sunset we defeated both wings of the enemy, but owing to their large force and strong positions, we were unable to dislodge them entirely.

"At daybreak of August 1 we resumed the attack and succeeded in expelling the enemy at noon and pursued them for several miles in the direction of the enemy's principal position. The enemy fled toward Anping. The enemy at Yang Tsu Ling consisted of two and a half divisions, with corresponding artillery. The attacking operations there also progressed successfully, and by sunset we carried out the enemy's principal position, but a portion of them offered the stoutest resistance and we had to bivouac that night in battle formation.

"At daybreak August 2, we resumed the attack, and at 8 a.m. all the enemy fled into our hands. The enemy fled toward Anping. The enemy at Yang Tsu Ling consisted of two and a half divisions, with corresponding artillery. The attacking operations there also progressed successfully, and by sunset we carried out the enemy's principal position, but a portion of them offered the stoutest resistance and we had to bivouac that night in battle formation.

JUNIOR CHAMP DETHRONED.

Likely Youngsters Brought Out at Casino.

Roy Jones' Tournament Has Promising Start.

Lads Put up Several Close, Hard-fought Sets.

Little Gerald Young won the Junior championship of Southern California in decisive style at Central Courts last week, but his measure of the honor was terminated with a jerk yesterday afternoon during the opening play of Roy Jones' tournament at the Santa Monica Casino. The Duarte midge ran against a regular, who hooked up with Ashby Keeney, a fire-bronze blonde of the Mrs. Zaza Carter type, who swings his racket from the port side and carries more tennis guns than are vouchsafed to average youngsters of court trotting habits. In straight sets Keeney won his third consecutive match, and his red head will bob up in the finals Friday, when he meets Cecil Henry of Harvard School, another clever and snappy youngster, who is a well-known player, who mowed down all the opponents in his half of the drawing.

Keeney had all their own way. The sixteen-year rule was well observed, and the defection of Harlow Frink and other youngsters of a somewhat greater growth, who decided to opt out and give the bona fide juveniles a chance. The result was a flattering entry of fourteen young racket wielders, some of whom participated in their first tournament, and it was the consensus of such tennis lovers as watched yesterday that if the course of play does nothing else, it will have achieved a work of considerable importance to the game in encouraging so much new blood.

The juveniles proved pretty well matched on the whole, and scrappy sets were the rule rather than the exception. The two men who went through to the finals are undoubtedly the best pair in the entry list, and though diverse in their styles they will put up a very keen battle for the championship of Santa Monica later on. Roy Jones was fortunate in having good youngsters available right at hand, over half the participants being residents of the beach town, for this summer at least.

Arthur Cawston and Gerald Young, a microcosmic pair, came through early in the day in a set which was as close as their usually are and a little closer than the recent one at Lincoln. Young took the opening number, 4-6, but Cawston's back hand like a cat and chopped out the second six love. Young's superiority reasserted itself in 6-2.

Bricktop Keeney caught a Tartar in Ernest Coons of Covina at the juncture. Though this is his first tournament, this prominent young player, a well-known tennis player, displayed finished strokes, and Keeney had to play hard to gain the win. The first set was a close one, but the second was a walkover. The second was a walkover.

Henry drew Frank Buttolph in his first match and showed his class by going through the last twice in 6-4. He next disposed of Dwight Holmes, but until this previous victory he had been played to a standstill by Tom Brant in what was unanimously voted the funniest feature of a funny event. Brant led off by holding Dwight down to 5 all, and won the first set, 6-5. This was binding, as Tommy is one of those point-of-view players who, when he is in a particularly binding position, plays with vision of unmerciful joshing for his portion if beaten again, played very hard but not too hard, and the little fellow chased him about from corner to corner and again ran the game to a close. Dwight finally bucked two games and won, 7-5. The game the third set and a still harder tussle. Again deuce games were reached and another time Henry beat Holmes, 6-4, 6-3. The juvenile play of yesterday summarized as follows:

Arthur Cawston, bye; Gerald Young beat Charles Nebecker, 6-4, 6-2; Frink defaulted to Paul Dwyer, 6-2, 4-3; Cecil Henry beat F. Buttolph, 6-4, 6-2; Dwight Holmes beat T. Brant, 6-4, 7-5; Dave Brown beat H. Harrell, 6-1, 6-0; G. Townsend, bye.

Second round—Young beat Cawston, 6-4, 6-2, 6-3; Keeney beat Radir, 6-3, 2-6, 6-4; Henry beat Holmes, 6-4, 6-3; Townsend beat Dave Brant, 6-2, 6-3; Semi-finals—Keeney beat Young, 6-4, 6-2; Henry beat Townsend, 6-4, 6-2.

All the events will start today and drawings will be made this morning. Roy Jones is expected to be present, and the entry that is in prospect so soon after the tournament of last week, and has arranged to play the names of those who desire to play by telephone. He is starting the events early so as to make all possible concessions to players rather than default.

Doubles promise some good matches. Wayne and Way will play together in the forthcoming championship and Violet Sutton, Elliott and Florence Sutton, are two other strong teams which have entered.

The innovation of serving a good lunch on the grounds yesterday made a hit with the players and patrons. Jones as usual is leaving nothing undone that might minister to the comfort of his talent.

ARIZONA'S WELCOME.
Territory is Prepared to Receive Los Angeles Business Men With Open Arms.

The press of Arizona has extended a hearty welcome to the Los Angeles bankers, merchants and manufacturers who propose to visit the Territory in September, on business and pleasure. The Cocolino Sun says that "they will receive a hearty and most generous welcome from the business men whom they will meet in the numerous cities they are to visit; a reception that will dispel any derogatory ideas they might entertain through unfriendly or ill-informed sources. The visit to our Territory of these representative Los Angeles men will have a tendency to bring about closer business relations, and when the interests of the two sections shall have become mutual—which is the case now, and will be realized upon a closer acquaintance Arizona will find in these progressive Southern Californians friends who will be backward in extending a helping hand to assist in matters deserving. On behalf of Arizonians the Sun extends a cordial welcome to the gentlemen."

men, assuring them that their visit will be made pleasant while in erstwhile Apache Land.
The Flagstaff Sun, after publishing the plan of the proposed excursion, says: "The party proposes to occupy not less than twelve days on the trip, during which time it will visit Phoenix, Tucson, Flagstaff, Douglas, Clifton and Globe, returning west via the Santa Fe route, calling upon Winslow, Flagstaff, Williams, Jerome, Prescott and Kingman. The Arizona merchant will extend the glad hand and talk business."
The Tucson Post "goes wrong" in its conception of the objects of the excursion, which it says are "to appease the opposition to Senator Bard coming from some sections of Arizona. There is nothing political in the proposed visit of Los Angeles business men to Arizona. The trip is to combine business with pleasure, and there is not a political aspect to it, of any kind or description."

LIFE TREMBLES IN BALANCE.

MAN WITH SEWED HEART HAS A FIGHTING CHANCE.

Victim of Green's Deadly Dagger is Hovering 'Twixt Life and Death but His Chances for Recovery are Again Considered Favorable—His Condition.

Hovering between life and death with the chances in his favor at one moment, and against him the next, William Smith, the man with the slashed heart, is still battling for life at the County Hospital.

Yesterday Smith surprised the nurses by a rapid rally from a sinking spell of the night previous, last when lunch time came around he appeared cheerful.
Dr. A. M. Smith, the police surgeon who performed the wonderful operation, visited his patient last night and reported his condition as follows: Pulse, 116; temperature, 102; respiration, 24. While the pulse is high the temperature has decreased and respiration is rapidly assuming normal proportions. Dr. Smith says that conditions are favorable for the man's ultimate recovery, though this can only be effected by the most careful nursing.

The case is attracting attention throughout the State and Smith's condition is constantly watched by a host of medical men. He still has more than an even chance for life, so the physicians think.

OXNARD, INCENDIARY FIRE.

OXNARD, Aug. 2.—About 12:30 o'clock last night, fire was discovered in the Philway Building, a two-story structure on E. Street near the Plaza. The building contains an unusual number of stores on the ground floor and a lodging-house above. When discovered the fire had good headway and had apparently been started in more than one place; but the fire company was on the ground promptly and with one high-pressure stream in the front and another in the rear, soon had the fire under control. If the fire had spread beyond the building it would have had a fine frame range to work on. In fact, the fire had spread to the adjacent building, a fire to go beyond the limits of the building in which it originated.

WILL SOON MAKE SUGAR.

Preparatory work at the sugar factory, which had been suspended for three days as a mark of respect to the superintendent, J. McCoy Williams, who lost his life last week, resumed Monday and the force of workmen will be gradually increased until Saturday the 12th, when the mill will commence grinding beets. The farmers will commence plowing out and hauling the first of next week, in order to insure a sufficient supply in the bins to keep the factory going when it starts up. The season's crop is estimated at about 10,000 tons, of which, with the beets from China and other outside fields will keep the wheels turning well into November.

BUCKLE TOWN NOTES.

The handsome pressed brick front of the Henry Maulhardt Building on Fifth street is nearing completion and adds greatly to the appearance of that end of town.
The excavations for the Knights of Columbus Building are about finished and Contractor Leonard will commence on the cement foundation at once in order to have it ready for the cornerstone ceremonies, which are scheduled for the day after tomorrow.

The handsome altar for the new Catholic Church has been received and is being placed in position at the church. When the cases containing it were opened at the freight depot, it was found to be badly damaged and in order to insure a sufficient supply in the bins to keep the factory going when it starts up. The season's crop is estimated at about 10,000 tons, of which, with the beets from China and other outside fields will keep the wheels turning well into November.

SANTA MONICA.

TRUSTEES CALL BOND ELECTION
SANTA MONICA, Aug. 2.—At the meeting of the Santa Monica City Trustees last night, a bond election was adopted and a special city election called to be held on Tuesday, the 16th of August. This is one of the most important city elections ever held here, as the proposed issue of bonds for the city limits is now restricted to eight miles an hour. All unretired franchisees were declared forfeited, among them was that of the erstwhile Kinney road.

An ordinance regulating the speed of electric cars was passed. The speed limit within the city limits is now restricted to eight miles an hour. All unretired franchisees were declared forfeited, among them was that of the erstwhile Kinney road.

The innovation of serving a good lunch on the grounds yesterday made a hit with the players and patrons. Jones as usual is leaving nothing undone that might minister to the comfort of his talent.

COOKING WITH GAS.
The great difficulty of getting one's household done is made tolerable by the gas stove—it saves a good deal of actual money.

The Pasadena and Pacific Railway Company must secure a new franchise if it wishes to build through the city, as must also the successors of W. S. Hook and his associates, and the Southern Pacific for the extensions it had under consideration a year ago last January.

The Christian Church's Sunday-school will picnic on the beach Thursday and on the next day the Methodists will go to Laurel Canon and the Episcopalians to Santa Monica Canon. The Sunset Telephone Company is to equip its system here with automatic machines and it will not hereafter be necessary to "ring up" central.

The public library will be on the move tomorrow and for several days from City Hall to the new Carnegie building.
Four special passenger coaches were called into service today to bring from Los Angeles the mothers and children who enjoyed the Salvation Army's picnic.

Benjamin R. Balsley and Miss Leola L. Leavitt are to be wedded at the M. E. Church tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock.
How to Stop a Dog Fight.
"I saw an ugly dog fight stopped in a very handy manner the other day," says an agent whose business takes him to almost every section of the city. "It was between a couple of bulldogs, and they went at it in a manner that threatened to put an end to the life of both. Finally each got a hold on the other's nose, and the men looking on were afraid that the dogs would kill each other. It was a short distance from a saloon, and a young man who appeared to be interested in one of the dogs as owner ran to the saloon and brought out a bottle of salt water. Approaching the fighting dogs he aimed the syphon at their faces and pressed the lever. There was a stream of water straight into the mix-up of struggling and growling animals, and it had scarcely cooled their eyes when they let go instantly and ran in opposite directions yelping like whipped puppies."—Union Observer.

Guarding Mexican Border.
For the purpose of preventing the entry of Chinese and undesirable immigrants from across the Mexican border, the United States Immigration Bureau has placed inspectors in the principal cities of Mexico. These men, who act in the capacity of secret service agents, are expected to keep close watch and inform the immigration officials at the border of any persons they suspect of trying to cross the border and gain entrance to the United States without submitting to examination.

Chinese, as is well known, are excluded from the United States. It is claimed that many Chinamen have come to Mexico, made their way to towns on the border in either Chihuahua, Sonora, Coahuila or Tamaulipas, and then crossed the border at points where they could evade the immigration officials. The same has been true, it is claimed, of immigrants from Europe, who, owing to physical or other disabilities, have been unable to pass the examination for entrance at established ports on the Atlantic coast. The identity of the inspectors, of course, is kept a secret, and they work unassisted. Whether the system will be a success cannot as yet be predicted, as the inspectors have been on duty in Mexico. It is stated, only a very short time—Mexican Herald.

Through to the East.

Pasadena route, the lower-fare route, leaves Chicago daily at 10:05 a.m., arrives New York 3 o'clock p.m., next day. Luncheon and dinner served in a buffet car. "Pay-for-what-you-order" plan—the new café car between Chicago and Columbus. The Allegheny Mountains are crossed in daylight. business in this market continues to be of a hand-to-mouth character, as only for sufficient supplies with which to meet immediate and growing demands.—Journal of Commerce.

COTTON JOTTINGS. Advice from most of the Southern States show the general crop conditions are improving and with a little more moisture crop yields should be fairly heavy. The most cases are small, but fruitful well, while there are no complaints of grass.

New York capitalists have organized a company for the purpose of utilizing the waste of the cotton gin.

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKET.

At the session of the Produce Exchange on Tuesday, eggs, butter and cheese still maintained their prices. The latter is to be accounted for by the very heavy demand from the beach resorts. This also applies to the fruit market and all kinds were bought up by mid-day.

Rose of Peru grapes are now offered and are fetching $1 per picking basket. Muscat grapes came in for the first time yesterday; they were in prime condition.

White Rose potatoes are not on the market at present. There is a first feeling, as last week's stock is very scarce, but northern stock is coming in freely.

Northern Rose are selling at 1.5¢±0.00 moderate; crabs are very scarce and dealers are asking higher figures.

Local millers are offering advanced prices on a number of feed products; other millstuffs are unchanged.

Do not Neglect Your Piano

Reasonable Care and Attention Is Necessary to Insure Best Results.

All pianos, no matter how expensive they may be, need occasional visits from a competent tuner and repairer. To neglect this greatly impairs their service and durability.

If you desire the best results from your piano, have it tuned and looked over at least twice a year by a man or woman you know to be reliable. (Poor workmen often ruin fine pianos.) The small expense will be more than offset by greatly increased durability.

Proof of our ability is shown in the fact that Steinway & Sons, manufacturers of the famous "Steinway" Piano, intrust us with all work on their pianos in Southern California.

Our shop is equipped with the very latest and most approved piano repairing appliances. Only the highest class of skilled labor is employed and every man works by the week—no piece work. Our charges will be reasonable and the best results assured.

Drop us a card—or ring up Sunset, James 7381; or Home Phone 2313, and every man works by the week—no piece work. Our charges will be reasonable and the best results assured.

We move, string, store, pack and ship Pianos and Organs. All work carefully done by expert piano men. Freight paid and rates given to any point.

BARD'S MEN WON'T CAUCUS.

Pasadena Fight Transferred to the Primaries.

Flint Managers' Tea Party
This Evening.

District Caucuses for the State Convention.

The first caucuses preliminary to the Senatorial fight in Los Angeles county will take place in Pasadena tonight. A week ago it looked as though this would be the opening battle of the campaign; but tonight will witness a little one-sided farce in which of the eight precincts in Pasadena.

It was decided yesterday by the Bard managers to keep entirely out of the caucuses and to make the fight in the open at the primaries.

The Flint men were busy all day yesterday seeing to it that the so-called which made that accusation, and Wood is the king pin in the Flint alley. Now that the Flint men realize that the move did not work, they have ceased to yell for the Bard Assemblyman and are planning to put James Campbell in the field as Goodrich's opponent.

"I don't know what these Flint managers are trying to do," said City Treasurer Campbell yesterday. "I have been under the impression that we were all for Goodrich for Assemblyman, but I have been approached by a great many people to oppose him. I have no intention of doing so. I am not running for any office."

"How can the Flint men be for Goodrich when he has declared himself so strongly for Bard?" "Well, I don't know. I am not a Flint manager. You better ask Ben Hahn. It's all a mixup, and I want to keep out of the mix."

State Senator Hahn said: "Why, I am not in this fight. I am a hold-over and it is not for me to do politics now. Yes, I am for Goodrich. He came out for Bard, but that doesn't make any difference."

It is a deep game which will be discussed at the little Flint meetings tonight. "What's anybody 'knowing' anything," "cares anything," or "does anything" on the Flint roadbed, the little caucuses will still contain all the ingredients that were mixed in the Gage soup of two years ago and each bowl of the "hot stuff" handed out includes a pass over the Southern Pacific Railroad.

"The Bard men are going to keep out of the caucuses, not make their delegates and make a fight in the open at the primaries—that is, if there will be any fight," said Dr. Ralph Skillen as he introduced L. R. Taylor, who makes candy by day and works for caucuses would be held in Flint strongholds. For example, the eighth precinct will meet at the residence of James Campbell, No. 409 South Lake avenue. Slates have been made in back offices and over the telephone and the Flint men are chucking at the "control of the caucuses."

There will not be a Bard man at the residence of "Jimmy" Campbell tonight, nor at any of the other meeting places and the caucuses will resolve themselves into little Flint pow-wows and heart-to-heart talks. The "feed" will be good while it lasts, but at the primaries there will be some bad cases of indigestion.

The holding caucuses is a waste of time, for the reason that each side will have its ticket at the primaries. The caucuses will have no effect upon the election of delegates to the convention. This is the reason why the caucuses were abandoned in Los Angeles as something entirely unnecessary. But the Flint men in Pasadena thought they saw a chance to have a little howl of their own and insisted on the call.

It was practically agreed by the Central committeemen and the voters of Pasadena to omit the caucuses and a statement to that effect was published in the newspapers of the place, but the first announcement was reversed by the Flint men for the sake of their little "tea parties." The primaries will be held on August 9 and the assembly District Convention one week later, on August 16.

But the little game did not work and the exposure came with the statement of Goodrich that he and his old law partner, Moody, had talked it all over and were in the fight together for Bard. Moody said to a Times reporter yesterday: "If I were a delegate to the county central committee, I would assuredly support Goodrich, as I think it is to the interests of the people to send a man to the Legislature who has declared himself in writing and in every other way for Bard. The whole scheme of the Flint men has been to undermine the fight by accusing the Bard Club of subterfuge. It is an admitted fact that John W. Wood wrote the article in the Star

ANTI-SEMITES TAKE FLIGHT.

Jew Baiters Running from the Wrath to Come.

Officers to Stop Hoodlumism at Schuetzen Park.

What Zion Society's Head
Men Say About It.

In craven fear of the officers on their track, the young anti-Semite bullies who created last Sunday's riot at Schuetzen Park have fled from the city.

They cannot escape, however. Constables have found out who they are. Warrants were issued yesterday from Justice Young's court for five or six of the ruffians. Search was made for them last night in neighboring towns, where they are known to be hiding. The plans are laid to make of them such an example that young toughs of this city will hereafter choose jumping into thrashing machines for excitement in preference to breaking up Sunday picnics.

Whether these particular men are caught or not, the gang will be broken up and scattered.

Since the riot last Sunday it has been learned that these toughs are members of a regular gang who make a practice of breaking up Sunday picnics and insulting women on suburban cars, and who take a particularly childish delight in persecuting the Jewish societies on their harmless outings.

Spectators at the brutal outrage last Sunday testify that the toughs went into the fight yelling taunts at the Jews.

"Kill the d—d Jews," they yelled. "Their extreme fervor for Christianity has a somewhat grim humor about it," their Police Court and criminal records and their private detachments would not stamp them as religious fanatics.

It is, however, another chapter in the old, worn-out story of Jewish persecution.

Further accounts of the riot state that the toughs drove one inoffensive Jew up a tree and pelted him with stones. They hounded the Jewish picnicers down the road and out of the park like veritable hell hounds.

Women and girls who had gone over to the park dressed up in their gayest holiday clothes and looking forward to a good time, were forced to run for their lives. Insults followed them to the gates of the park.

One of the members of the Zion Society which had the picnic said yesterday that Jewish picnicers about Los Angeles have been assaulted time and time again by these same toughs, but never of course so violently.

"They think," he said, "that because we are Jews they have full license to do with us as they please. They suppose that, being Jews, we will make no resistance. They would not dare do those things to other people. They think nobody will interfere with them if they limit their insults to the Jews."

The attitude of most of the members of the Zion society, however, is that of silent endurance, acceptance of fate that has so long been the lot of their persecuted race. They say they will prosecute the rioters if they are caught; but they seem to have little bitterness in their hearts.

Meavitt, a clothier on First street and the vice-president of the Zion Society, said yesterday: "I don't know that they intended to persecute us. I don't know if they were or not. They are a lot of reckless young men who had drank too much and lost their self control. Their acts were very cruel. As I was in charge of the ticket-taking at the gate and a long way off, I cannot speak with much authority. I do not intend to judge too harshly from hearsay."

Many persons who have suffered less than the members of this Jewish society feel more bitter toward the toughs for insults offered to women on the cars and for other picnics broken up.

For a time the same gang was the cause of Verdugo Park, and interfered with the picnics so that no woman who went there was safe from insult.

The trolley cars between the Schuetzen Park and the city have been unsafe for women on Sunday nights. In the past, the trolley cars have been used by the Jewish picnicers in the presence of women, the indecent acts being seemingly driven in the faces of women passengers.

This gang has been hanging on the edge of the chain gang for years in Los Angeles. It is of the same people as that of an unclean tough dancing club, where crime was nourished in the tenderloin which was the scene of action of many of the Police Court cases.

Owing to the unfortunate limitations of the prize-fight law, they have not been beaten since that day to death. The Sheriff and the constables have gotten together, however, and the gang has reached the end of its rope.

ARIZONA PRESS OPINION.

What Some of the Territory Papers Have to Say About Senator Bard.

Under the heading, "The Phoenix Attitude," the Phoenix Republican prints an editorial discussing "the Bard question," and the Senator's relation to Arizona; and in the course of that editorial the Republican takes occasion to remark that "so far as the sympathy of the Arizona people go, they are not likely to be aroused to the heated state for either Senator Bard or for his most prominent opponent, Mr. Oxnard. But the people of the Territory do appreciate the fact that in opposing consolidation with New Mexico, Mr. Bard is Arizona's most powerful friend among western Senators."

The Republican, in another editorial headed, "A Jaapy Ending," congratulates the Phoenix Board of Trade upon its refusal to adopt a resolution denouncing Senator Bard. The Republican offers to be adopted a declaration that the board is in favor of joint Statehood with New Mexico. It is the evidence of B. A. Fowler, former president of the board, and of J. F. Wilson, Delegate to Congress from Arizona, that Senator Bard is the only western Senator who has worked against the pending joint Statehood bill, and is the only western Senator who has repeatedly and vigorously declared his opposition to joining this Territory to New Mexico. And this evidence cannot be doubted. If the resolution had been adopted the board to be consistent should also have adopted a resolution declaring its approval of the joint State scheme. It would have been deplorable if the Phoenix Board of Trade, the most important commercial body in the Territory, had wantonly insulted the chairman of the Senate Committee on Irrigation, the most powerful friend Arizona has today in the United States Senate.

The Arizona Journal-Miner, published at Prescott, deprecates the attempt of some Arizona to "butt in," as it says, on California politics, and adds that "there are people in Arizona who agree with Senator Bard on the Statehood question." It says, further, that "Senator Bard has conducted himself in office in a manner which seems to have pleased his California constituents, if some of his Arizona constituents are dissatisfied. But his view of his reelection is extremely favorable."

INTERNATIONAL SAVINGS BANK.

MEN OF FOREIGN BIRTH START
STRONG INSTITUTION.

Will Attempt to Gather up the Banking Business of the Foreign-speaking Residents of the City.
Attendants Will be Chosen for Their Linguistic Ability.

A savings institution that is destined to cut a figure in the future financial affairs of the city will be launched at Temple and Spring streets September 1.

Application was yesterday made for articles of incorporation for the International Savings Bank, with a paid-up capital of $50,000. Its stockholders are taken from among prominent foreign-speaking residents of the city and include French, Italian, German, Hebrew, Spanish, Alsatian, Slavonian and many other nationalities. The full list is as follows: Jules Kauffman, John Lopisch, Jules Viole, T. M. Kristovich, A. K. Marsisch, Kaspare Kohn, Morris Kohn, John Campbell, S. Bodrero, A. Ferrario, Leon Escallier, Jacques Degior, A. Fussenot, George Lacoste, John Falco, The End, Manuel Eyras, L. Sentous, E. Fleur, B. Custruccio, Dr. B. Sasella, M. Durand, N. T. Skarich, A. Carpy, George Zolein, A. F. Puch, M. Vustich, A. Bercochio, A. Vignolo, G. E. Bittlinger, V. G. Nangier, M. N. Newmark, Josephine Regnier, Dr. V. Rendon.

It is the idea of these gentlemen, arrived at after mature deliberation, that there are at least 10,000 foreign-speaking residents in the city who will patronize an institution where their native tongue is spoken, in preference to any other. They will therefore offer a special effort in the direction of corraling the bank accounts of all these people, and will have officers and attendants who will speak the language of the customers.

FATAL ENDING OF ROUND OF JOINTS AT CAYUCOS.

Two Men on Camping Trip Visit the Saloons and Imbibe Liquor,
After Which They Quarrel, and One Draws Gun on the Other and Fires With Deadly Effect.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
SAN LUIS OBISPO, Aug. 2.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) John C. Hoagland was shot and instantly killed by Beverly English in Eatero Grove, a quarter of a mile north of the town of Cayucos last night.

About a week ago the two men came from McKittrick, Kern county, to camp at Cayucos Beach. Hoagland brought with him his wife and three children and English furnished a team and wagon for the trip.

Both men were good friends. Sunday afternoon the two men made a round of the saloons in Cayucos, and when they left about 9 o'clock for their camp in the grove they were considerably under the influence of liquor. Hoagland's wife and children were in the wagon, while the men rolled in their blankets on the ground.

Shortly after the men arrived at the camp Mrs. Hoagland says that she heard them quarreling and both used profane language. Later English said: "If you want to fight come over here." A short time after two pistol shots were heard and Hoagland dropped dead.

English returned at once to Cayucos and reported that he had killed Hoagland. He gave himself up and now is in the County Jail. English, who is a brother of Robert English, one well known to the farmers of the hills, says he is in self-defense, but he tells contradictory stories.

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER'S LIGHT.

TARRANTOWN (N. Y.) Aug. 2.—After spending $10,000 and considerable time in experimenting, John D. Rockefeller has decided that a private electric lighting plant is a failure, and he has signed a contract with the local lighting company to light his estate at Pocantico Hills. The private plan is for a set of large incandescent lamps to light the mansion, grounds and private park, and they will be installed at once. After operating the plant a short time, Rockefeller discovered that it was costing more than the electric supply and the lighting company. There was also the constant danger of burning barns which cost $200,000.

The French Foreign Office denies the report, circulated in the United States Monday, of a rupture of relations between France and Venezuela.

Electrical Engineer Tells of Big Proposition.

Huntington and Others are Still Planning.

R. S. Mason of this city, chief engineer for H. E. Huntington, who returned yesterday from Fresno, brings news of a big corporation backed by an English syndicate which is planning to utilize the waters of the Mokelumne River, in Calaveras and Tuolumne counties to generate electrical power for San Francisco.

"I am credited by the San Francisco Examiner with selecting sites for power plants in that district to be used by Mr. Huntington in connection with the Fresno Traction Company. Last night, I never made a survey up there, and am not employed by the corporation which is doing the work. It is not H. E. Huntington, but the Sierra Nevada Water and Power Company. It is a big proposition. In speaking with Mr. G. Clark of Seattle, formerly of San Francisco, who is manager of the new company, he told me that over $20,000,000 would be expended by the corporation in the development of a big power-supplying business. They intend to carry the juice all the way to San Francisco, and also feed various cities in the San Joaquin Valley and on the coast of Central California."

The corporation holdings are founded on property and water rights owned by an old man named W. V. Clark, who has held them for many years. The Mokelumne ditch, as the water course is to be called, will run under the junction of the north and south forks of the Mokelumne River, and will convey an enormous amount of water to various drops where water motors will generate the electrical power.

Murray M. Harris and others of this city are said by the Examiner to have capital in this corporation. Harris is in Fresno.

In asserting that these power plans were H. E. Huntington conceived, the San Francisco Examiner credits H. E. Harriman with being a silent partner in the Fresno Traction Company. Last night a high officer of this company denied that Harriman is in any way connected with the Traction interests in Fresno. "It is true that Huntington is to build from Fresno to Wawona, and that he is going after a big Yosemite business, but the proposition is backed by Mr. Huntington, W. G. Kerckhoff, A. C. Balch and other Los Angeles capitalists. Harriman is not in it at all."

Wawona is within a sixteen miles of the Yosemite Valley, which is as near as any railroad can get to the government property. The route will be by way of Clovis and Crane valleys. With Fresno as the center Huntington intends to run various electric lines through that part of the State.

MISSIONARIES COMING.

Large Band Gathering at Friend's Bible Training School for Work in China.

The new principal of the Training School for Christian Workers, at No. 1111 South Figueroa street, under Mr. Houlding, has just finished a wide tour of the Middle and Eastern States. He entered this field eight years ago, and was the only missionary among the 4,000 people.

Mr. Houlding will arrive in Los Angeles next week with a company of thirty thirty to fifty candidates. They will take training in the school here, and expect to sail from Seattle, October 12.

At the present time another band is gathering for the China work under Mr. Houlding. He has just finished a wide tour of the Middle and Eastern States. He entered this field eight years ago, and was the only missionary among the 4,000 people.

Mr. Houlding will arrive in Los Angeles next week with a company of thirty thirty to fifty candidates. They will take training in the school here, and expect to sail from Seattle, October 12.

The commodious new building of fifty-five rooms on Figueroa street will be crowded with missionaries for the next two months. The workers are busy preparing for the company. Several friends of mission work are donating bedroom furnishings for the new building.

SANTA BARBARA.

BATTLESHIP GOES NORTH.

SANTA BARBARA, Aug. 2.—Although the naval officers who witnessed and participated in the trial trip of the battleship Ohio are not doing any talking for publication, some of them do not attempt to conceal the opinion that the trial was a disappointment alike to them and to the representatives of the builders. The impression prevails that the big vessel which was launched in the presence of the immortal McKinley, did not quite live up to the contract requirements for speed. Official announcement has not been made of

POLITICAL.

I am for Bard, yes, but I am not enough in politics to give you my reason and am taking no active part. I have looked at the matter in a general way and would rather not be quoted. Rev. Dr. E. L. Conger, former pastor of the Universalist Church, Pasadena, is all right. I always thought so, and I see no reason to change my opinion. Since 1887, as man and citizen and politician he is independent; not an office seeker. He is a patriot in business. I think his stand on Arizona statehood was just right. Many in Arizona stand by him rather than to New Mexico, knowing that they might never get loose. His record has been consistent as long as he has been in this part of the country. Few others can say as much.

FOR STATE CONVENTION.

Assembly district conventions will be held in the eight Assembly districts lying wholly or partly within the cities of Los Angeles and Pasadena, at 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon for the purpose of nominating candidates for delegates to the State convention, which will be held in Santa Cruz on August 25.

The district apportionment for delegates and the places of meeting are as follows: Sixty-seventh Assembly District—Courtroom, City Hall, Pasadena, to choose six delegates. Sixty-eighth Assembly District—2314 East First street, Los Angeles, to choose three delegates. Sixty-ninth Assembly District—Longhead Hall, Twenty-third and Hoover streets, to choose four delegates. Seventy-first Assembly District—Masonic Hall, Thirtieth and Main streets, Los Angeles, to choose eight delegates.

Seventy-second Assembly District—Driving Club Stables, No. 1543 West Pico street, Los Angeles, to choose eight delegates. Seventy-third Assembly District—113 West Ninth street, Los Angeles, to choose nine delegates. Seventy-fourth Assembly District—No. 229 Downey avenue, Los Angeles, to choose six delegates. Seventy-fifth Assembly District—Republican League rooms, No. 2114 West Second street, to choose eleven delegates.

There will be no caucuses for State delegates in the country portions of the Assembly districts, but delegates elected to the county convention on August 9 will serve as delegates to the district conventions which will be held during the time that the county convention is in session. The apportionment for the parts of Assembly districts outside Los Angeles and Pasadena, will be as follows: Sixty-seventh Assembly District, four delegates; Sixty-eighth Assembly District, ten delegates; Sixty-ninth Assembly District, eight delegates; Seventy-first Assembly District, to elect six delegates; Seventy-second Assembly District, to elect six delegates.

The State convention will this year be a perfunctory sort of meeting, as about the only matter of interest will be the nomination of two electors-at-large. One of these has been promised to Southern California.

HOW LIFE MAY BE MADE LONGER.

WITH CARE HEALTHY MEN MAY REAR CENTURY MARK.

Too Much Sleep Injurious—Steady Mental Work Assists the Nutrition of the Brain as Action Does the Nutrition of the Muscles—Suggestions for Fat People.

[London Lancet:] The question of the possible duration of human life, when put to great statesmen, scientists and others who have almost reached the century mark of life, has been answered in various ways.

Von Mohlke, at the age of ninety, was still possessed of intellectual power and remarkable vitality. When asked how he managed to live so long and in such excellent health, he replied: "By great moderation in all things and by regular out-of-door exercise."

Crispien, the famous Italian statesman, said: "Regularity and abstinence are the secrets of long life." Neal Dow, the American apostle of temperance reform, replied, when asked the question: "Refrain from fretting."

Cornaro replied: "Extreme temperance in eating and drinking." Dr. G. N. Pope, the aged Tamil scholar, said: "Be sure to have some great life work to do which holds you upon the earth for the accomplishment of a purpose, and you will live."

These words from the lips of eminent men who lived to a wonderful old age are of intense interest, but they are not the cold and judicial advice of the scientist. Recently I worked out a plan, the rules of which, if followed carefully, will result in the increased longevity of one's life. My first word of advice to those who would live long is to avoid disease, especially such diseases as one is disposed to contract through inherited weakness. This is to be done by knowing one's predisposition to disease and exercising the necessary care, in occupation, general habits and diet, that will indefinitely postpone the attack to which one is predisposed from birth.

KEEP JOINTS WELL OILED. I advise such care in diet and general habits of life as will defer as long as possible the hardening of the coats of the blood vessels, that generally comes on before its natural time, and other deteriorations of bodily vigor that are the concomitants or equivalents of the physical conditions of old age. In old age the tissues dry up and the joints stiffen. Keep your tissues moist and your joints well oiled.

The first thing needed to keep the tissues healthy and strong and the various organs in good working order is a certain amount of exercise taken every day. Regularly taken exercise strengthens the heart, thereby causing the great organ to pump the fluids of the body to the remotest corners and thereby improving nutrition and causing all the other organs to do their natural work and to take a delight, so to speak, in doing their natural work.

This nutrition abundantly supplies the body with power and furnishes material for the combustion which, when sufficiently strong, gives the body the ability to resist chills, which are the natural enemies of life. A prerequisite to the successful effect of exercise is oxygen. Hence fresh air in plenty is the second useful thing. Among the circumstances influencing the duration of life heredity is of great influence. Those whose ancestors have lived to great ages have a good chance of longevity, while those whose parents and blood relations have died early have mostly inherited a tendency to short lives, yet it is possible by judicious arrangement of the manner of living to increase the duration of their lives, especially by counteracting the tendencies of which their short-lived ancestors have died.

BEWARE OF EGGS.

There should be moderation of eating and drinking, especially in regard to meat foods. The rule of moderation applies to the whole life, but the necessity for it is increased in old age, when the organs and tissues are able to take up only a much smaller amount of nourishing material than in youth. Few people have an idea of the small amount of food required in old age, and the fear of many persons that by eating little they may lose strength is entirely unfounded.

In the matter of food my recipe for longevity will strike a weak spot. The most important advice is to refrain from large quantities of meat and eggs. The latter, when eaten in large quantities or continually every day for three meals, or even for two meals, are as destructive to length of life as the regular free consumption of alcohol.

In fact, no matter what kind of food is taken, the quantity should be small. The human body can live and thrive and work on a surprisingly small quantity of nourishment. Great moderation in eating is, therefore, one of the keys that unlock the doors of long living.

As to the food accessories, alcohol is quite unnecessary for most persons, and ought to be avoided entirely, excepting in the smallest quantities. Little tea and coffee will go a long way. These liquids should be taken moderately and in a quiet condition. The use of tobacco in any form is considered injurious to the system, the poison acting particularly on the stomach and heart. The majority of men, however, derive a certain amount of comfort from using tobacco, and, therefore, may take it in small quantities.

Great temperance in all these things, when they are used at all, will prevent the shortening of life that comes from their free use.

As the nervous system exercises great power on all the functions of the body, it ought to be kept in a healthy condition by regular mental work and judicious occupations. The fear often expressed that steady mental work is likely to wear out the brain too soon is unfounded. The wearing theory is wrong, as well for mental as for physical work, both of which may be continued in old age.

MENTAL WORK BENEFICIAL. Well directed mental work assists the nutrition of the brain in a similar way as action of a muscle promotes its nutrition. Work is the best preventive of mental depression and the most powerful promoter of a cheerful mental frame, a contented mind, sympathy and hope, which exercise a TWO HOW LIFE MAY BE MADE highly beneficial effect on every function of the body.

Pat and gouty idlers who are afraid of death should study zoology, chemistry or some other science. Lord Salisbury was one of the most enthusiastic chemists in England. Bismarck and Gladstone, Crispien and other statesmen; Pope Leo XIII had the care of his great church on his mind; Darwin, Spencer, Huxley, Sechi, Deussen and a hundred other scientists and philosophers lived to an old age, although they were physically complaining almost their entire lives. Inseparable from the functions of the brain, sleep is most essential, which is to some people so dear that they sleep away more than half of their lives. Too much sleep is injurious, causing sluggishness of mental and physical functions, slowness of circulation and degeneration of the small arteries of the brain. From five and a half to seven hours of sleep daily is sufficient for an adult.

The skin ought to be kept in a healthy and vigorous condition by the daily bath, cold if the health is good, warm if it is feeble. The simple way to live to an old age and in health, to continue preservation of intelligent activity and happiness consists in a careful attention to and practice of the rules herein laid down.

No doubt that is one reason why so many prefer to select their silks at the Coulter store. It takes away all element of chance and assures a full equivalent for one's money—at ALL times.

Just now it assures you of a quarter to a third MORE than usual value on the most staple lines of black silks—the result of a spot cash purchase of 12,000 yards from importers and manufacturers who were anxious to wind up their season's business. Monday's and Tuesday's selling reduced the quantities considerably, but the VARIETIES are still good.

PARADISE FOR DOGS ALSO.

DELIGHTS OF PASADENA ARE NOT TO BE LIMITED.

Humans Society to Look After Canine Catching—Nearly Every Pasadena Pastor is Out of the City. Petition Circulated for Annexation.

PASADENA, Office of The Times.
No. 28 South Raymond avenue, Aug.
2.—The Pasadena Humane Society proposes to come to the relief of the canine population. This is the time of the year when the dog catcher is abroad. In times past it has been the custom for this official of the city's government to go forth with a wagon provided with a large box, said box having a hole in it into which a stray cereemoniously chucked. The dog was then held for ransom and if his owner didn't leave him $2 worth he was shipped to the canine happy hunting grounds.

But the Humane Society does not like this method of doing things. It therefore proposes to take the dogs catching into its own hands and the city officials are by no means loath to be relieved of the unpleasantness. The society's idea is to have the Humane Officer, Dr. L. J. Hays appointed as such. He will collect the regular licenses and turn the same over to the city. In order to accomplish this no great amount of legislation is necessary.

"Our idea," said President Dr. E. L. Conger yesterday, "is that our officer will treat the dogs with more kindness than they are likely to receive from a man who goes into their domain every twenty days and out of it. When we take over the pound business instead of killing the unredeemed animals we will maintain a detention house for them and find homes for the ownerless pups. Dogs are like men. If they are homeless and neglected they become trained and then they are nuisances. That is apt to be the case as the pound is conducted now, but our officer will be picking up stray dogs all the year, which will keep the tramps from increasing in number.

CHURCHES PASTORLESS.

The rectory house hasn't much advantage over the proverbial church mouse, in Pasadena these days. For all most of them have taken their families with them. That's the snap of being a minister of the gospel. The doctor can't load his patients on board a train of cars or pack mules and the lawyer has to be in the neighborhood of courts, but the clerical gentleman may have a barrel of sermons on tap and his himself away to mountain or shore just far enough and near enough so that he may be here on Sundays. Rev. Robert J. Burdette, who seems to the beauties of Sunnyside, and the only local attraction is not counting his head in mountain breezes or his feet in seashore wavelets.

La Jolla seems to be the Mecca for Pasadena pastors, regardless of creed. For some time past, Rev. William McCormack, pastor of All Saints' Episcopal Church, and Rev. S. G. Dunham, pastor of the First Universalist, have been here, and yesterday Rev. Malcolm J. MacLeod joined them. Rev. Isaac Jewel of the First Pasadena Methodist went to Catalina yesterday. Rev. F. M. Dowling of the First Christian alternates between here and Wilson's Peak and is planning his annual

John A. Holmes, West Side Congregationalist, and Rev. A. W. Lampert, First Methodist, are reported out of town. Rev. Stephen G. Emerson and wife are at Camp Rincon.

FOR ANNEXATION.

E. N. Gould of North Pasadena started out yesterday afternoon obtaining signatures to a petition for the annexation of a portion of North Pasadena. The petition is addressed to the City Council and the signers are voters residing in the territory to be annexed.

The section described is as follows: Commencing at the present city limits on the east and north, thence north on Mountain street, to Washington street, thence to a point 231 feet east of Luwena avenue, thence north to a point 223 feet north of Atchison street, thence along Woodbury road to a point 200 feet north of Montana street, and along the bank of the Arroyo Seco back to the present city limits.

Gould is confident of winning the fight on these lines. If he secures the upon the City Council to call an election both in the city and in the territory to be annexed. A majority of votes in election is necessary to carry the project.

COUNCIL ROUTINE.

The following ordinance to keep youngsters out of billiard halls was read for the first time at the meeting of the City Council yesterday and

"Section 2.—It shall be unlawful for any person under the age of 18 years to visit, enter or loiter in or about any billiard room or poolroom in the City of Pasadena.

"Section 2.—It shall be unlawful for the proprietor, manager or person in charge of any billiard room or poolroom in the City of Pasadena to allow any person under the age of 18 years

"Section 2.—Any person violating any of the provisions" of this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine in a sum not exceeding $100 or by imprisonment in jail for a term not exceeding 30 days.

At last that much-talked-of experimental well is being drilled. Trombly moved that the Mayor and City Clerk enter into a contract with the Southern California Drilling and Construction Co. for drilling a test well on property of the city located at the south side of Glenarm street, and that the City Engineer purchase the necessary material for the same.

Ernest H. Lockwood appeared in the interests of a petition asking that Glenarm street, from Fair Oaks avenue to a point east of the city limits, passed with decomposed granite. South Pasadena will widen the street twenty feet, and the idea is to make a prettily landscaped driveway around Raymond Hill.

CAUCUSES TONIGHT.

This evening caucuses will be held in all the city precincts for the purpose of electing delegates to the County Convention. These delegates will meet here for the primaries on August 10.

"Our idea," said President Dr. E. L. Cramer yesterday, "is that our officer will treat the dogs with more kindness than they are likely to receive from a man who goes into the business of catching dogs for twenty days and wants to make all the money he can out of it. When we take over the pound business instead of killing the unclaimed animals we will maintain a detention hospital for them and find homes for the ownerless pups. Dogs are like men. If they are homeless and neglected they become tramps and then they are nuisances. That is apt to be the case as the pound is conducted now, but our officers will be picking up stray dogs all the year, which will keep the tramps from increasing in numbers."

CHURCHES PASTORLESS.

The rectory mouse hasn't much advantage over the proverbial church mouse in Pasadena these days. For all the preachers are out of town and most of them have taken their families with them. That's the snap of being a minister of the gospel. The doctor can't load his patients on board a train of cars or pack mules and the lawyer has to be in the neighborhood of courts, but the clerical gentleman may have a barrel of sermons on tap and he himself away to mountain or shore just far enough and near enough so that he may be here on Sundays. Rev. Robert J. Burdette, who seems to find enough recreation surrounded by the beauties of Sunnyside, is about the only local pastor who is not coming his head in mountain breezes or his feet in seashore waves.

La Jolla seems to be the Mecca for Pasadena pastors, regardless of creed. For some time past Rev. William McCormack, rector of All Saints' Episcopal Church, and Rev. S. G. Dunham, pastor of the First Universalist, have been there, and yesterday Rev. Malcolm J. MacCallister, pastor of the First Methodist, and Rev. Isaac Jewell of the North Pasadena Methodist went to Catalina yesterday. Rev. F. M. Dowling of the First Christian, an alternates between here and Wilson's Peak and is planning his annual wagon trip. Rev. R. R. Meredith is in the northern part of the State. John A. Holmes, West Side Congregationalist, and Rev. A. W. Lamport, First Methodist, are reported out of town. Rev. Stephen G. Emerson and wife are at Camp Rincon.

FOR ANNEXATION.

E. N. Gould of North Pasadena started out yesterday afternoon obtaining signatures to a petition for the annexation of a portion of North Pasadena. The petition is addressed to the City Council and the signers are voters residing in the section to be annexed.

COUNCIL ROUTINE.

The following ordinance to keep youngsters out of billiard halls was read for the first time at the meeting of the City Council yesterday and is likely to be passed at the next meeting:

"Section 1.—It shall be unlawful for any person under the age of 18 years to visit, enter or loiter in or about any billiard room or poolroom in the City of Pasadena.

"Section 2.—It shall be unlawful for the proprietor, manager or person in charge of any billiard room or poolroom in the City of Pasadena to allow any person under the age of 18 years to visit, enter or loiter in or about such place in his care, ownership or management.

"Section 3.—Any person violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by fine not exceeding $100 or by imprisonment in the City Jail of said Pasadena for a term not exceeding one month, or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court."

At last that much-talked-of experimental well is to be sunk. Councilman Twombly moved that the Mayor and City Clerk enter into a compact with the Southern California Drilling and Construction Company for drilling a well on property of the city located on the south side of Glenasmole street, and that the City Engineer purchase the necessary material.

Interest in the proposed well was shown by a delegation of Messrs. C. J. Lockwood appeared in the City Council yesterday and asked for a point 400 feet east of Orange Grove avenue, be curved and gutted and paved with decomposed granite. South Pasadena will widen the street twenty feet and the lot to make a pretty driveway around Raymond Hill.

CAUCUSES TONIGHT.

Ten evening caucuses will be held in all the city precincts for the purpose of electing delegates to the County Convention. These delegates will be met for at the primaries on August

CLAREMONT.

MORE STUDENTS THAN ROOMS.

CLAREMONT, Aug. 2.—About forty new students have made application for admission to the college, and it is expected that over double that number will be enrolled at the opening of the fall term. The question has already arisen as to where to put them. Summer Hall is full, with a number of petitioners on the waiting list, and the houses around the town are fast filling up. It looks as if another year must witness the erection of a new dormitory. As to class-room, that is another serious problem. It is to be hoped that "friends indeed will be friends in need" and help in the earnest effort which is being made to properly equip the college.

Mrs. Gardiner of Los Angeles will make her home with her parents, Judge and Mrs. J. B. Tuttle of Claremont.

Mrs. E. W. Billings, Miss Louise Billings and Harold Billings have gone to Long Beach for several weeks' vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Patten have returned from Oceanside.

Rev. and Mrs. Tracy have moved from Claremont to their ranch in Ontario, where they will reside until the first of September, when they will go to Chula Vista, where Mr. Tracy has accepted a call to the First Congregational Church.

Excursion to Lake Tahoe.

Don't miss the S. P. excursion to Lake Tahoe. Against the American Tourist Association, the most beautiful spot on the Pacific coast, is an admitted fact. "Man made the hotel and put in the accommodations at this spot, but God made the climate and the scenery."

woman and club woman who is sojourning at Redondo is Mrs. J. F. Sartori. Mrs. Sartori's work in connection with the Juvenile Court in Los Angeles is well known, and though clubs are not in session at present, it is safe to presume that Mrs. Sartori's little protégées of the Detention Home will receive the same attention from her as formerly, even if it is vacation.

Summer P. Hunt is at the beach, but is accompanied by his family, Mrs. Hunt being still in the East, and others who are sojourning there in the dreary surroundings of flowers, of and scenery are: C. H. Holterhoff and Joseph Ball of Pasadena, Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Turner and Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Post of Los Angeles and Mrs. M. E. Cornwall and son and daughter from Redlands.

The golf links in Redondo are at present rather unpromising in appearance, but the work on them is rapidly being pushed forward, and they will be ready for the enthusiastic golfer and a few weeks. In the meantime the summer guest is not idle, and trap shooting has been engaging the attention of the ambitious sportsman. Some of those who have been successful in bringing down the clay pigeons are Messrs. Kith, Woolcott, O'Connell and Talmage.

Drive whist is progressing favorably but slowly, and yesterday afternoon there was a rather noisy party of ladies from as many different points of the compass as could possibly be gotten together. There were Mrs. Broome of Washington City, Mrs. Turner of Honolulu, Mrs. Smith of Redlands, Mrs. Woolcott and Mrs. M. S. Stuart of Chicago, and Mrs. Botsford of Los Angeles.

OCEAN PARK.

BIG CATHOLIC PICNIC.

OCEAN PARK, Aug. 2.—At a meeting held last evening it was decided definitely that the annual Catholic reunion and picnic for Southern California should be held at Pier avenue, Ocean Park. It is thought no less than 10,000 Catholics from all parts of Southern California will attend the reunion. The date is August 24, and extensive arrangements will be made to entertain the crowd. There will be ocean trips, bathing, fishing and boating, to say nothing of boat races, swimming, croquet, tennis and other sports. Bishop County will be present and Father Michael L. Hennessey, the rector of Ocean Park parish, will be master of ceremonies. The Executive Committee having charge of the arrangements for the picnic consist of: Edward A. Gray, J. F. EVENTS IN SOCIETY.

ALL the world loves a lover and there is no one who will not admit a little, just a little, interest in one, especially when the girl is one of the brightest and most attractive of her set and the young man in the case is well known.

Therefore great was the surprise, and many the low whisperings in corners, when Miss Marie Turner, one of the most popular girls of the Delta Gamma and Epsilon Nu chapters, gave a grand soiree on Saturday afternoon at her home at No. 1158 West Thirty-eighth street, and announced her engagement to Arthur Campbell McVee. It was not that her most intimate friends had not expected it, for of course they always do that, but then one can never tell until it is really announced if the ever-changing maid has surely set her heart on just this one particular man. Best of all about this affair was the unique and delicate way in which it was made known to the guests. It was a surprise, for the bride and groom were in the dining-room that the guests made a dash for the hostess, and overheard her with their excited congratulations. The secret of this was the huge wedding bell which swung over the dining table, made entirely of thin sheets of white tissue paper, and to each one was attached a streamer of white baby ribbon, which each guest was requested to pull in so that the streamer would be rewarded with one of the slips of paper on which were the names of the bride-to-be and her fiancé. But aside from the engagement announcement the affair was a delightful one. Miss Turner was assisted in receiving and entertaining her guests by Mrs. C. W. Brown, Mrs. M. B. Brown, Miss Bertha Rose, Miss Sadie Scoville, Miss Bertha Green, Miss Edith Hardy and little Miss Lila Turner, the small sister of the bride, in a dainty little gown of white silk, received the guests. The house was decorated with smilax and asparagus plumosus, and in the dining-room white roses mingled their fragrance with the greenery. In the reception hall tall vases filled with scarlet lilies gave a bright touch of color, and in the parlor pink hydrangeas were artistically placed over the mantel and on small tables about the room. In the course of the afternoon an impromptu white tissue paper dance was given, and among others who delighted the guests was Miss Isabel Curl, who was escorted repeatedly, Miss Edith Williams's rich contralto voice was heard to advantage, and Mr. Harris gave a number of violin solos accompanied by Miss Emma Bates gave some clever readings. There were about eighty invitations issued and the affair was one of the most charming of the summer season.

There are a number of functions which are being planned for Miss Turner. Among others will be the china shower which Miss Bertha Rose of West Thirtieth street will give on Saturday afternoon, August 12, and there will be others which will be announced later. The wedding is to take place on September 8.

Wed in Trinity.

Standing beneath a feathery canopy of green asparagus plumosus, touched here and there with airy tulle, a snow white tulle, Miss Fanny Romana Donovan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Donovan, became the bride of Harry Glover Hartwell, of Metairie, La., performed by the Rev. E. P. Ryland in Trinity M. E. Church at Ninth street and Grand avenue at 11 o'clock, last evening. It was a particularly pretty wedding. The young bride was indeed lovely as she came down the aisle on the arm of her brother, Louis Donovan. First came the two ushers, then the two bridesmaids, followed by the maid of honor, and lastly the bride. She wore a becoming gown of white chiffon made in the 1830 style, fashioned with much shirring and trimmed with many puffs of chiffon. It was finished with the dearest, quaintest little puff sleeves reaching just above the dimpled elbows, and long angel ruffles hung gracefully from the elbow. Over her face a veil of softest tulle fell caught with a handsome snub of pearls and diamonds and she carried a shower bouquet of white carnations. The maid of honor, Miss Sarah Brown, an extremely attractive girl, wore a dainty gown of pink silk mull over pink silk and carried pink carnations. Miss Gertrude Bennett and Miss Elizabeth Donovan acted as bridesmaids. They wore white organdie gowns made with airy ruffles and much fine lace, and carried garlands of asparagus plumosus tied with great white bows of satin ribbon. Miss Mary Holmes, the organist, rendered the L'engrin march, Traumerel and Tannhauser during the service. The room was decorated with white carnations as best man, and the two ushers were Everett Bennett, Wallace Conroy and Milton Hensberger. The church was simply but effectively decorated, a canopy of asparagus plumosus being over the heads of the wedding party.

After the service a supper was served to the members of the bride's party at the home of the bride's parents at No. 813 Pico street. Here Mr. and Mrs. Hartwell stood beneath a canopy of white tulle and ferns to receive congratulations, and a supper was served in the dining-room. In the center of the table a cluster of white carnations was arranged, and over the table, from the chandeliers to the corners of the room, white satin ribbons were festooned, wound with delicate tendrils of asparagus plumosus, and a soft light was cast over the scene from the silver candelabra which were set at each end of the table, shaded with silken shades of white. Mr. and Mrs. Hartwell are both popular young people. They left for a well-
